CASH WANTED.

THE Subscriber takes this method of saying to those indebted to the old firm of Nicholson & Presley, on notes and accounts for the year 1839, and previous, that necessity compels me to request them to come forward and pay up. I have money due on the 1st of January next, and cannot extend longer indulgence. I would also say, that I wish to make an irrevocable rule in my business to have all accounts liquidated the 1st of January each year, which will save me considerable trouble, and be for the interest of my customers.

E. B. PRESLEY.
 Dec. 10 if 45

Notice.

THE Subscribers make this last call on all those indebted to them, to come forward and liquidate their notes and accounts, without delay, as we are determined to close up our business. All those who do not take advantage of this notice, by the fifteenth day of January next, will find their notes and accounts in the hands of an Attorney for collection.
